

Biography – Calum Mullett

Calum was brought up in Seaford, Sussex (with some time spent in New Zealand). He was raised in a non-religious home and came to faith during his teenage years through a variety of church traditions. While studying PPE at Birmingham, Calum felt called to ministry, and after a year working in church planting he began studying for ordination at Wycliffe Hall, Oxford. Calum met his wife Grace in Oxford where they married in August 2023. Calum enjoys studying liturgy and Christian history, as well as cooking, writing, and hiking. He will be serving his curacy at St George's, Preston.
