

Biography – Christopher Hegg

Chris grew up in Hoylake and, via Oxford, London and Dhaka, he now lives in the pretty rural village of Slaidburn with his wife Depa; his elderly mother and an adorable moggy called Tasmin. He attends St Leonard's, Downham where he was privileged to regularly lead Morning Prayer (BCP) services during the recent interregnum. Feeling unworthy of the ministry to which he has been called (a feeling he hopes never to lose) he is looking forward to helping to bring the Gospel, through words and actions, to the people of Clitheroe by assisting at all four churches in the Benefice.
