

Biography – Danny Abraham

Originally from Shevington, Wigan, Danny has lived in Burscough since 2013 and worked for his father as an electrician for eight years. His 'home church' is St John the Baptist, Burscough. That's the church where he rediscovered his Christian faith in 2016; helping to lead services and preach as he prayerfully discerned his calling. Danny is married to Georgia and they have one child – Levi aged 1. Danny is excited to have reached this milestone in his life and journey with God. He will be serving his curacy at All Saints Higher Walton and Holy Trinity Hoghton under Rev. Hannah Boyd.
