

Biography – Joe Kochanski

Joe grew up in Ohio. After leaving home, he spent time in Ireland; then moved to New York where he met his wife, Laura, before moving to Lancashire where they were married 18 years ago. The couple have two sons, Kenny and Bobby. For the past 10 years, they have lived in New Longton and worshipped at All Saints' Church. Joe had spent 20 years working in finance and project management before exploring a call to ordained ministry. He is excited to see what God has planned for him as he serves his curacy in the parishes of Rufford and Tarleton.
