

Biography – Emily Barry

Emily grew up in Exeter in Devon before moving to Lancaster to study; falling in love with Lancashire and staying! She is married to Nic and they have two boys, Daniel, age 6 and Sam, 10. Before sensing a call to ordained ministry, Emily worked as an Occupational Therapist in NHS mental health services for 10 years. Since ordination, she has been serving her curacy at Ribbleton Parish in Preston at the Church of the Ascension and St Mary Magdalene's. She is looking forward to being Priested and also to the joy of celebrating the Eucharist for and with her church community.
