Born in Bangladesh to missionary parents, Jenny has spent most of her life living in, and loving, the North West of England. Jenny is constantly surprised by the adventures she has with Jesus – from working as a hairdresser, to serving in Ethiopia, to qualifying as a chair-based exercise instructor – there is never a dull moment when following God's call in life. Jenny is married to Matt, who is the Vicar at St Cuthbert's in Over Kellet, and they have two children: Ben, aged 11 and Abi, aged 9. She is currently serving her curacy at Morecambe Parish Church.
