

Biography – Kathryn Sperring

Originally from Weston-super-Mare, Kathryn moved to Lancashire in 2003 and has brought up her three children here. She is married to Trevor and they enjoy eating out and doing quizzes together. Kathryn trained as a teacher and has taught all ages during her career. She has worked in church leadership all her life, mainly with children and young people but also leading groups and organising events. Kathryn is excited to see where God will take her in the coming years and looks forward to the joys and challenges ahead.
