

Biography – Nikki Mann

Originally from Bristol, Nikki has lived in Lancashire for 18 years, many of which were spent working as a secondary school teacher whilst undertaking a wide variety of voluntary roles in both church and secular contexts. Nikki is married to Leslie and they have a nine-year-old son, Alex. Nikki is serving her curacy in the churches of Skerton St Luke's and Lancaster St Chad's. She finds a life-giving joy in working with the communities in those parishes and is excited to see where and how God will continue to move and be at work there in the coming years.
