

Biography – Peter Dillon

Peter, married to Barbara, stepfather to Kieran and the late Kerrie, Gramps to five, has lived in East Lancashire most of his life. After a brief spell of training for the priesthood including a year in Valladolid, Northern Spain, he worked extensively across health and social care as a senior leader in social services operations and commissioning. Peter is currently curate at St Stephen's and St James' and has enjoyed the warm welcome and the opportunities to work in a multi-cultural environment, particularly in the two Church of England primary schools.
