

Biography – Rachel Frost

Originally from Devon, over the years Rachel slowly made her way up the country ... stopping off in north London, Bath and Durham for employment and ordination training before landing in Lancashire for curacy. She is serving that curacy with the Benefice of West Pendleside and is very much enjoying Lancashire life. When she's not involved with parish activities, Rachel enjoys knitting, walking and catching up with friends.